

The Parent's Meeting for Troop #206 was held on Monday, February 5th, 2007 at Sacred Heart School. Under the direction of Committee Chairman Earl Shelton, it began at approximately 7:30 PM and there were several parents there. Attendees included Mike Woods, Dave Fabian, John Gregory, Ben Copeland, Mark DeZutti, Nancy Ryde and Hannah Archbold. Other parents included Hilario Jauregui, Bob Barker, Julie DeVita, Jim Shott, Laura Rhodes, Nick Nicarlo, and Marianne Petersen. Anne Churukian, Marsha Brock, Pam Songer, Mark Gilles, Margie Osborn, Annette Marshall, Jay Dean, Patrice Koeten and Sheri Simmons were also parents who were present at the meeting.

Mr. Shelton covered various events covering from February through April of 2007. The events included Scout Sunday, on February 4th in which any Scout could participate in an event at Trinity Parish or other churches and places of worship. This could include acholyting or assisting with communion. On Thursday, February 9th, there was an ASM Meeting at the Trinity Library.

There was supposed to be a second cycling trip on Saturday, February 10th, but due to rain, it was cancelled/postponed, as was the overnight camping at Mt. Madonna.

This last Monday night, February 12th, there was both a Court of Honor followed with Patrol Meetings at Sacred Heart. Several Scouts and parents were awarded numerous awards for completing different Merit Badges and participating in various activities. Peter VdP was recognized for earning his Eagle and Alex B for passing his Eagle Board of Review. Congratulations!!!

For the weekend of February 17th and 18th, several Scouts will be participating in Snow Camping at Castle Peak Trail near Boreal and will be under the direction of Mr. Phil McHale and Patrick R.

The month of February will finish off with PLC Meetings and the theme for the month was Winter Sports.

For the month of March, the theme will be Pioneering and will start off with the monthly Parent Meeting on March 5th at Sacred Heart School. There will also be another ASM Meeting at Trinity Church on March 8th and our big annual event, the Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, March 10th. The Pancake Breakfast will be held at Trinity Church and Scouts and parents will be a part of the big fund raiser. Awards will be given for the Scouts selling the most tickets.

Other March activities will include more Troop Meetings, a high adventure 22 mile backpacking trip from Pescadero to Butano Parks, a PLC Meeting and the Redwood District Camporee at Camp Cutter (originally believed to be at Huddart Park). The District Camporee will be under the direction of Dave Reneau and Jack D.

April will be Wilderness Survival month and again will incorporate the monthly Parent Meeting / Troop Meeting, as well as two more Troop Meetings, an ASM Meeting, Wilderness Survival Backpacking and a PLC Meeting. Wilderness Survival event is for Scouts of all abilities will take place at Boggs Mountain State Forest, north of Calistoga, and will be under the direction of Emma Shelton and Peter H.

At this point, the deposits for Summer Camp are due by February 19th and we have oversubscribed in the past and it worked out. Last noted, there are only 9 spaces left if a bus is chartered, there will be an additional cost of approximately $70.00.
